GROUP SALES

DO YOU LIKE TO ROLL WITH A CROWD?

Whether you are the social coordinator for your friends, the party planner for your club or association, are responsible for keeping company outings interesting, are a classroom educator, or work in the tourism and travel industry, Delaware Shakespeare's Summer Festival can be a fun destination for your group. And you have the option of bringing your favorite foods and beverages! (We also have food, adult beverages, and soft drinks for sale.)

How does it work?

Just give us your name, email and phone number. We will contact you in 1—3 business days to confirm your ticket request.

Group sales pricing requires a 10-person minimum. You may change your attendance numbers at any time, and pay your balance in advance or pay all at once at the gate. If you would prefer to have your guests buy their own tickets at the gate, simply give us a list of your guests' names to check off. We accept cash, checks, and cards at the gate.

If you want to reserve seats, these must be purchased in advance, as they are subject to availability.
